Dear Kiki,

Jakarta, September 29, 2013

Last holiday, my brother and I visited our grandparents in Bandar Lampung. There are many tourist destinations, such as museum, shores, water park, zoo, and Way Kambas. During our visit, we decided to go to Way Kambas, the Elephant Training Centre. We wanted to watch the huge animals playing football.

Way Kambas is situated in East Lampung, about 110 km from Bandar Lampung, the capital city of Lampung. It took 3 hours for us to reach Way Kambas from our grandparents' home. We left early in the morning at 6 a.m. by car. It would take longer to go there by motorcycle or bus.

We were lucky to visit the place on the weekend, because the elephant football show is only held on weekends. The show was great. It was amazing to see such big animals running and kicking the ball. The ball was larger than the one used in regular football. After that we watched other attractions. My Brother had a ride on the big animals, but I didn’t. I was too nervous to do it.

At 4 p.m., we returned to Bandar Lampung. We were very tired, but impressed. It was really an interesting experience for us. I hope you can visit it too in the future. By the way, how was your holiday?

Yours,

Miranty

The following text is for questions 27 to 30.

I have a pet. It is a dog and I call it Snowy. Snowy is a Chinese breed. It is small, fluffy and cute. It has thick white fur. When I cuddle it, the fur feels soft. Snowy does not like bones. Everyday it eats soft food like steamed rice, fish or bread. Every morning I give her milk and bread. When I am at school, Snowy plays with my cat. They get along well and never fight; maybe because Snowy does not bark a lot. It treats the other animals in our house gently, and it never bites shoes.

We always spend time together at home. We do many activities: playing balls, hide and seek, or racing in the backyard. In the afternoon, I usually take her for a walk. People love to see Snowy. Snowy is really a sweet and friendly pet.

27. What is the topic of the story?
   A. A friendship between a cat and a dog.
   B. Spending time with a pet inside and outside the house.
   C. A friendly and sweet dog.
   D. A friendship between a pet and its owner.
28. The main topic of paragraph two is ....
A. The writer’s activities with his/her pet.
B. Everybody loves to walk with Snowy.
C. Snowy is a cute and friendly dog.
D. Snowy always plays with the cat.

29. Where does the writer usually spend the time with his pet?
A. In the neighbourhood.
B. On the street.
C. At school.
D. At home.

30. What activity does the writer do after school with his pet?
A. Cuddle it softly.
B. Take it for a walk.
C. Give it milk.
D. Let it play with the cat.

The following text is for questions 31 to 34.

There was a girl named Pina who lived on a fruit plantation with her mother. When her mother worked night and day, little Pina would spend all her time playing with her friends. When her mother asked her to do something, she would always reply that she couldn’t find things, even if it was laying right in front of her eyes.

One day, her mother fell ill and couldn’t even get up to cook some food. So, she asked Pina to cook some rice. However, Pina being her lazy self, said “I can’t find the pot, so where should I put the rice?”. Her mother told her where the pot was. Then she said, “where is the ladle, how am I going to cook without a ladle?”. Again her sick mother had to tell her the exact location. Pina did the same with salt, rice and water! Enraged by Pine’s behaviour, her mother cursed, “May you grow a thousand eyes” and went back to sleep.

When she woke up, she could not find her daughter. She searched and searched, and so did every single person on the plantation. After a few days, a strange fruit with thousand of little dots was seen on the plantation. When Pina’s mother saw the fruit, she was immediately reminded of Pina’s beautiful brown eyes and thus, the fruit with a thousand eyes was named "Pinya", meaning pineapple in Tagalog.

31. The best title for the text is ...
A. The fruit with thousands of eyes.
B. A lazy girl in plantation.
C. The origin of pineapple.
D. A missing girl.

32. What happened to the mother when she realized Pina had gone?
A. She searched for her.
B. She cursed her.
C. She fell asleep.
D. She got sick.
33. What is the main idea of paragraph two?
   A. Pina’s mother was so angry that she cursed her daughter.
   B. Pina was too lazy to cook her own food.
   C. Pina’s mother was terribly ill
   D. Pina was a really bad cook.

34. What can we learn from the story?
   A. Don’t be lazy.
   B. Don’t spend your time for playing.
   C. Do not angry to your child.
   D. Respect and obey your mother.

The following text is for questions 35 to 39.

Asian are famous for their tea culture. Unlike Myanmar, Tibetan and Vietnam, Japan’s tradition of drinking tea has been renowned all over the world. Tea ceremony involves preparing tea powder for guests and enjoying its rigid taste quietly and serenely. Influenced by Zen Buddhism, tea ceremony seeks to purify their mind.

The tea serving ceremony used to be exclusively practiced by nobles and priests who gave it its original form around the middle of the fourteenth century. In Japan its popularity gradually spread to wealthy merchants, warlords during the era of civil warfare (in the 15 and 16 centuries) and their retainers.

The tea ceremony has been modified in many ways over the years. Until the end of the Edo period (1603-1868) it was practiced almost entirely by men; women joined in only after the beginning of the Meiji Era (1868-1912). There are many schools of tea ceremony, including the three Senke schools of Ura, Omote and Mushanokoji. They all maintain the spirit of the ceremony while preserving their own distinctive of tea preparation and serving.

35. What is the text about?

   A. Only men serve tea in the ceremony
   B. How women serve tea in the ceremony
   C. The Era when tea ceremony is modified
   D. The tea ceremony has been modified over time

37. The text tells about tea ceremony in ...
   A. Tibet.
   B. Japan.
   C. Vietnam.
   D. Myanmar.

38. At present, what is the reason for a tea ceremony?
   A. To greet guests.
   B. To purify the mind.
   C. To preserve tradition.
   D. To serve noble person.
39. What is the purpose of the text?
   A. To tell the step in serving tea.
   B. To invite guests to a tea ceremony.
   C. To describe tea ceremony in Japan.
   D. To share the experience of having tea ceremony.
